But Indications Point to an Improvement-Team Has Not Bettered Its Pesition in Present Home Series-Absence of Wallace and the Infield Shift Broke Up a Strong Combination and Helped Lose Some Games-White Sox Are Making a strong Bid -How They Compare in Team Work and Batting.

ARTHUR NICHOLS, -By a Republic Photographer.

Who is again ready to take his regular turn behind the hat for the Cardinals, after being held off for several weeks with a split hand. Nichols is a good outfielder, as well as eather, and is one of the most popular members of the St. Louis National League

Every attraction the American Leanue has to offer has now played in St. Louis, and still the matter of picking first-division finishers is a hard proposition, though the season is two months old. The clubs are still so closely bunched that the loss of a few straight games by the leaders would result in a material change in the standing. St. Louis has all along had pennant aspirations, and Mr. Hedges is consident that his team will come with a rush at the fag end of the race. The fact remains, however, that the Browns have been practically at a standstill for nearly a month, and now that local fandom has had a chance to judge of the relative merits of the eight contenders, there is some tangible idea of what clubs will be in the running at the formula states.

The Chlongo White Sox have not been overwrimated. The material gathered by comiskey is certainly a stronger factor than the team that won the hemantal last year, but the infusion of National League blood into the young league and reorganization of the old teams have given the champions a much harder row to hoe. Certain it is that It's queer bow pitchers come and go nox-It's queer how pitchers come and go norndays. Mathewase, the senselion of last year, is no leager a dinwins card since he has been getting his humps so regularly.

Jack Harper is not having a successful season. Thus for he has lost more games than he has wan, and the most of his defeats were brought about in a single mainy.
Thursday's gene at Sporteman's Park was a good exhaple. In all but one inning Harper patched allucing tail but Has ing was equally effective, and don't have any bad innings, and that was what wen for the Athletics. Doston took Harper's law wise,
As an offset to his apparent decline of effectiveness. Harper is hitting the ball exceeding well for a pitcher.

At present the Browns are working only four pitchers in regular turn. Relay's arm
